

2 days Training workshop on "Updation of District Disaster Management Plan" concludes at Baramulla

Baramulla, 18 September: As part of the Sustainable Reduction in Disaster Risk (SRDR) being sponsored by the Divisional administration Kashmir, two days training workshop on " Updation of District Disaster Management Plan" was today concluded here at dak bungalow Baramulla which marked the participation of representatives of various departments, volunteers, functionaries of District Disaster Management Authority and various others.

Workshop was organized by J&K Institute of Management, Public Administration and Rural Development (JKIMPARD) with Additional Deputy Commissioner Baramulla Farooq Ahmad Baba as the chief guest.

On the occasion, a series of lectures on the topic were delivered by the resource persons. They stressed for adopting more effective means during disasters so that loss to the life and property is mitigated.

Coordinator Prof G M Dar various underlined the significance of the workshop and deliberated on disaster preparednes besides presenting a detailed account of various disasters including floods, earthquakes, landslides etc that gloomed the habitation since time immemorial. He stressed for educating the people at grassroot levels regarding disaster mitigation and exhorted for applying proper methodologies in times of eventualities.

ADC, while speaking on the occasion complimented the participants and said that calamities cannot be avoided but its effects can be mitigated by proper management and prepardness.

Later, commendation certificates were given to the participants who actively participated in the workshop.d

Training workshop.JPG